

The Wanamaker Store Store Closes at 6 P. M. The Wanamaker Store

Looking Forward This Week at Wanamaker's

THE great venture of two city blocks, with a great store on each block, both showing masterful organization and large originality, is a success. The crucial test testifies. That test is found in the verdict of approval—increasing sales.

The vast organism as it now appears has been wrought out by "do" versus "don't," by trust against doubt. Timid doubt and coward fear looked backward. Forward took counsel of Courage. The result is bounded by Broadway and Fourth avenue with Eighth and Tenth streets.

The most comprehensive stores. As yet without equal.
The most interesting stores. Give you so much to think about.
The most Commodious Stores. Room enough to make Christmas shopping comfortable.
These stores grow on the square deal. Imperfections? Yes, human beings manage them. Improvements? Yes, human beings with ideals manage them. Comparisons? Yes, they reveal progress and higher excellence.

We just now need to present and you need to see this Enterprise whole—four-square. If you do, details will be superfluous. In merchandise, no line takes a second place. In management, ingenuity and initiative strive for a perfect service.

A Pre-Christmas Sale Of Men's HOUSE COATS

Another windfall of good fortune for seekers of choice holiday gifts for men. One of our best regular manufacturers of Men's House Coats had a surplus stock of more than a thousand handsome coats, and we secured them at the decisive concession that makes today's price possible. There are a hundred and fourteen different patterns and combinations in the collection, in sizes for stout men, as well as men of regular figure.

These coats are made of the same handsome material, and in the same accurate and comfortable fitting proportions as our regular stocks. The materials are reversible cloths, in refined patterns, and the coats are handsomely tailored at every point. They are in three groups, as follows:

Four hundred and twenty-one
$7.50 House Coats, $5
Three hundred and eighty-four
$9 House Coats, $6.50
Two hundred and twenty-six
$10 House Coats, $7.50

Also a special lot of Men's Woolen Blanket Bath Robes, in jacquard-figured patterns, made up in comfortable proportions, and nicely finished, at $5.50 each, worth $7.50 to $8.50. Sub-Station Store, Basement, Stewart Building.

Men's 50c Half-Hose, 30c a Pair

This is a large lot of handsome 50c Fancy Half-Hose which we bought from an overstocked importer. It is quite unusual to buy staple goods of this character at such a concession in price, but he had his reason for selling, and you will appreciate the opportunity as much as we do. They are just such socks as will make good, practical holiday gifts.

All are of fine lisle thread in various colors, such as brown, garnet, navy blue, champagne and changeable shades. Some have embroidered fronts, others have side-clocks; some are of mercerized lisle thread in plain colors. All regular 50c Half-Hose, at 30c. a pair. Main floor, Stewart Building.

Leather-Lined Shoes for Men

The man who has a pair of leather-lined shoes, convenient for stormy days, is going to be more comfortable during the winter than the man who has not. It means double foot-protection, and this is highly important, particularly with the man who has to be outdoors much. Here are brief hints of some excellent varieties of these Leather-Lined Shoes:

Box calf, calf-lined, lace, at $3.90 and $5.
Kidskin, kid-lined, lace, at $5.
Tan grain leather, calf-lined, Blucher style, at $5.
Black kid, kid-lined, lace, watertight, at $7.
Tan elk Storm Boots, Blucher style, 10 inches high, at $7.
Enamel leather, cork-soles, lace, lined with chambray, at $9.
Main floor, Wanamaker Building.

Silver-plated Toilet Articles Greatly Under-Price

In addition to our very large regular stocks, we have today a remarkable collection of Silver-plated Toilet Articles that are most suitable for holiday gifts. They come from one of the best manufacturers of high-grade plated ware who was cleaning up his surplus stock. The pieces are in handsome designs, beautifully finished, and the reductions come just when they will save more money for Christmas uses.

The following items, and more:
Jewel Boxes, at $2.50; worth $4.
Hair Receivers, at $1.50; worth $2.50.
Puff Boxes, at $1.75; worth $2.75.
Hair Pin Boxes, at $1.25; worth $2.
Safety Match Holders, at $1.50; worth $2.50.
Shaving Mugs and Brushes, at $2.25; worth $3.50.
Tenth street, Stewart Building.

FOR E!

HAVE you seen the demonstration of the new society game—"Substitute GOLF"? It's the greatest game invented in many a year. It will be the craze of the season. Come and see the demonstration. You'll want it, sure.

The best gift—the most fun the money can buy. Nine boards, handsomely lithographed in nine colors, club-links, ball markers, score cards—complete indoor course—$3.
Demonstration in Basement, Fourth ave. side, Stewart Building.

THE time for buying Winter suits has not run out. Far from it. The only objection to the size of that stock which has reached our office was from a friend who purchased much earlier in the season and complained that his brother who bought last week had the better selection. That, of course, was an exaggeration, but it is a fact that by the addition of new patterns right up to the present week the stock of mixture suits has been kept fresh and the sizes plentiful. $18 to $42.

The overcoat stock is just as good. $16 to $65.
